Suzi Molak

events director
gallery: 202.232.4788
direct: 202.716.9636
suzi@longviewgallerydc.com

Suzi Molak is events director at the new Long View Gallery, where clients capitalize on her dynamic background and long list of successes in the art and events industry. Suzi brings to Long View a unique perspective gained through years of high-profile activity in New York City.

After an education in art history, Suzi spent over three years leading a world-renowned Italian art glass company to establish its presence in US markets. Her efforts brought the company to limelight through a PR and events campaign that included collaborations with Fashion Rocks NYC and the Lincoln Center Lifetime Achievement in Film awards. With that success freshly on her heels, Suzi's next endeavor brought a new gallery to the famed SOHO art district in NYC, where her creativity and leadership took the upstart from pre-construction planning to flourishing success. Never slowing down, Suzi relocated to DC in 2007, and began helping individual and corporate clients with unique event ideas and planning. Through these pursuits, it quickly became clear that the DC area was missing something so many of her clients and others desired—a modern venue for exciting, inspired events. Suzi's vision now joined with that of the team to proudly bring DC the new Long View Gallery.

OVERHEARD

It is unlike any other space I have seen in DC - a totally hip, industrial meets modern, clean space. [...] If you are looking for a reception space that you can totally transform to fit your theme and vision, this is it! This spot will be sure to razzle dazzle anyone who steps into the gallery.

DANIELLE FREEDMAN, DISTRICTWEDDINGS.COM

We just got married at Long View and what an amazing space! We had everything on site - ceremony, cocktails, and reception... Could not have asked for more or better!

2015 BRIDE

It's tough to find a raw, industry, loft-like spaces for events here in DC. I think my wish finally came true!. It is the space DC has been waiting for, a great contrasting alternative to the plethora of historical buildings!

VICKY CHOI, EVENTACCOMPLISHED.WORDPRESS.COM

Long View Gallery was hands down, the best decision we made for our wedding. The atmosphere, the decor, the acoustics, location, the staff...everything was just what we were hoping for and more.

2014 BRIDE

Long View is the perfect venue for clients that want a unique, non-cookie cutter space to host a celebration. It can be completely transformed, or stand alone in its design and architecture.

We love proximity to hotels, restaurants, and after-party spots.

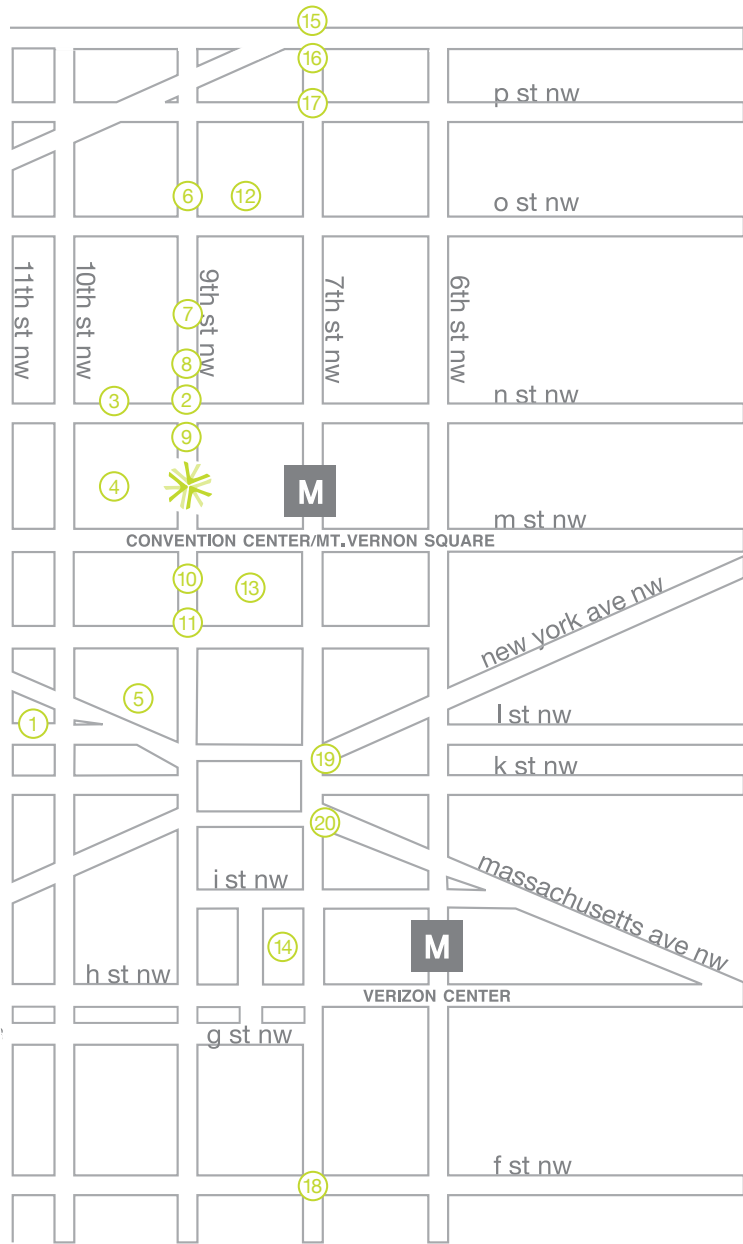

It is one of our favorite spots to plan in the country.

EMILY BUTLER, KARSON BUTLER EVENTS

Long View Gallery is one of my favorite venues in the city to help clients plan their wedding at. The unique space allows guests to create memories that are a reflection of each couple's personality.

PAM BAREFOOT, ATRENDY WEDDING
