ART CONSULTING

Long View Gallery is a leader in art consulting and placement in the corporate, multi-family and retail context. From conceptualization to installation, Long View successfully works within the parameters of budget, time and aesthetic to implement art on large-scale projects.

Long View has a roster of both locally- and nationally- renowned artists that it represents exclusively. The works of these artists come in varying sizes, mediums and price points. Further, Long View has access to other artists through a select network of galleries in New York, London and Chicago.

Among Long View's clients are national retailers, law firms, hospitals, insurance companies, institutional collectors, and developers. Specifically, Long View's clients include Kaiser Permanente, Marriott, Roadside Development, Shalom Baranes, JBG, Rockrose Development, Boston Consulting Group, BMW, Vanity Fair, JCrew, Acura, Sony Music, Madewell, Bloomingdales, Allen and Overy, Wayne and Catherine Reynolds and Dorothy Lichtenstein.

ABOUT LONG VIEW

Long View Gallery is the premiere fine art and event space in Washington, D.C. In its nearly ten years of operation, Long View has grown in many respects: its team has grown from one to six employees, its roster of artists has grown from just local to international, and its space has grown from 1,000 to nearly 10,000 square feet, the largest contemporary art gallery in the District.

Long View Gallery concurrently highlights the talent of unique artists and operates as a premiere venue for private functions. It represents both mid-career and emerging artists whose diverse portfolios run the gamut from abstract expressionism to photo-realism.
